

News From

JACK DOYLE

MONROE COUNTY EXECUTIVE

For Immediate Release

Thursday, October 19, 2000

PROGRAM TEACHES SURVIVAL SKILLS

The Monroe County Parks Department presents "I Will Survive," an instructional, wilderness-survival program, this Sunday October 22, 2000 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Mendon Ponds Park.

Many of the survival skills seen on the TV show "Survivor" will be demonstrated, including fire making without matches, water purification and shelter building. Active participation is encouraged.

"I Will Survive" is open to ages 10 to adult, and costs $2.00 per person. The program will meet at Mendon Ponds Park, on Canfield Road, between Mendon Center Road and South Wilmarth Road. Call 256-4956 to register.

#

*For further information, call:
Communications & Special Events at 428-2380
Visit us on the web: www.co.monroe.ny.us*

